CFNU Nursing Scholarship

Terms of Reference

The Canadian Federation of Nurses Unions (CFNU) is committed to supporting students enrolled in a registered nursing program. To this end, CFNU is offering a $1,000 scholarship to assist students in accredited nursing programs in each Canadian province. It is hoped that students who avail themselves of the New Brunswick scholarship will demonstrate nursing leadership within their provincial nurses union in the future. As a federation member, the New Brunswick Nurses Union sets the eligibility criteria and selects the candidate.

Who is eligible?

- One student enrolled in the first year of a registered nursing program.
- The student must be a relative of a past or present NBNU member.
- The applicant must have maintained a good academic standing.

How to apply

- Application forms are available at www.nbnu.ca or by calling 1-800-442-4914.
- Students must submit a 250 word essay on “The Importance of Unionism in the Work Life of Registered Nurses.”
- Certification of academic achievement: transcript of academic record or letter of reference from teacher(s).

How to submit your application:

The completed application form and essay must be mailed by September 30 of each year to:
