

Application of Leaves Provisions

For employees who are unable to attend work as a result of the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on their particular personal circumstances, the below table can be used to determine what benefits may be applicable depending on the employee’s particular scenario.

While specific examples are provided below, paid leave / quarantine leave is available for employees if the following criteria have been satisfied:

1. The employee has been advised by Public Health or Employee Health & Wellness that they must self-isolate because of their symptoms; and
2. The employee is being sent for testing for COVID-19.

Scenario	Alternate Arrangement/ Accommodation	Applicable Leave (If no arrangement/accommodation)	Notes
1. Childcare or family responsibilities
1a) New school bus schedule or school/daycare drop-off and pick-up times do not align with regular work schedule	Manager may approve suitable flexible work-hours arrangement (e.g. different start/end times, compressed lunches/breaks, etc.) based on operational requirements and ensuring regular number of work hours are completed and program/service delivery is not negatively impacted.	If no alternate arrangement/accommodation possible, employee may, upon manager’s approval, use vacation credits or time off in lieu of banked overtime (if applicable). Leave without pay once vacation/banked OT is exhausted or employee chooses not to use vacation/banked OT.
1b) Employee has child/dependent requiring care who is sick (COVID-19 related or otherwise) or waiting for COVID-19 test results	Employee is required to make all reasonable efforts to find safe alternate care arrangements. If not available, employee may request family responsibility leave as per the applicable collective agreements.	Family leave available in applicable collective agreement or policy for non-bargaining employees. Leave without pay once available family leave is exhausted. Employee may, upon manager’s approval, use vacation credits or time off in lieu of banked overtime (if applicable) before taking leave without pay.	Employees must call Employee Health & Wellness. Employee Health & Wellness will advise employees if they need to self-isolate and be swabbed for COVID-19. If employee is
