

CFNU Nursing Scholarship

Terms of Reference

The Canadian Federation of Nurses Unions (CFNU) is committed to supporting students enrolled in a nursing program. To this end, CFNU is offering a $1,000 scholarship to assist students in accredited nursing programs (BScN or LPN program) in each Canadian province. It is hoped that students who avail themselves of the New Brunswick scholarship will demonstrate nursing leadership within their provincial nurses union in the future. As a federation member, the New Brunswick Nurses Union sets the eligibility criteria and selects the candidate.

Who is eligible?

- One student enrolled in the first year of a nursing program (BScN or LPN Program).
- The applicant must be a relative of a past or present NBNU member.
- The applicant must have maintained a good academic standing.

How to apply

- Complete the application form (below)
- Submit a maximum of 250-word essay on "The Importance of Unionism in the Work Life of Nurses."
- Attach a certification of academic achievement (transcript of academic record) or letter of reference from teacher(s).

The completed application form and required documents must be mailed by September 30 of each year to:
