

NBNU MEETING POLICIES

MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS

Respect, have fun, listen, no side chatter, and, if you think it ... say it!

To allow for the effective exchange of information, minimum requirements must be maintained at all times during the business session. The chairperson, at her/his discretion, may call the assembly or any member to order if the meeting becomes noisy or members are disrespectful or unruly. An individual member has the right and ability to call for a check on the minimum requirements of the meeting as well. The chairperson, will then act on the "call" and bring the meeting to order.

No SMOKING POLICY

In accordance with the New Brunswick Nurses Union policy and the Province of New Brunswick, we request your cooperation to ensure that this conference is smoke-free. Smoking is only permitted where indicated.

RECYCLING POLICY

At the conclusion of the annual meeting, members are to deposit their delegate badge in the boxes provided at the registration desk.

No SCENT POLICY

Please be aware that some members are sensitive to chemicals, including those found in scents, perfumes, lotions, hair spray and aftershaves. For the well-being of colleagues, please refrain from using scents during the annual meeting.

ELECTRONIC DEVICES

1. Have electronic devices on vibrate.
2. Leave meeting room to take a call.
3. Be respectful and attentive to the discussion.
4. Refrain from unnecessary usage.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR COOPERATION
